

Sean Bodley

Visual Development Artist

(414) 334-1799

sabodley@gmail.com

www.seanbodley.com/portfolio

PROFILE

I am a creative problem solver with an absolute passion for creating exciting new worlds. I draw and paint layouts for environments, architecture, props, and color concepts that deliver a dramatic story experience to viewers.

SKILLS

- Expert in Photoshop
- Excellent painting, perspective, composition, lighting, and color skills
- Stylistic creativity - ability to create assets in multiple styles: cartoony - realistic.
- Strong research and form language design process
- Collaborator with critical thinking and ability to learn quickly.

EXPERIENCE

Mount Nittany Studio - Freelance Visual Development Artist

08/2016 - Present

- Environment design, background painting, and illustration.
- Wide range of projects for prop layouts schematics, keyframe illustrations, and color concepts.
- Reputation for ability to deliver creative solutions within assigned deadlines.

Futures Academy - Beverly Hills and Brentwood Campuses - Art Foundations Teacher

02/2018 - Present

- Prepares, demonstrates, and gives instruction on drawing, painting, and photography techniques in a 1-on-1 setting.
- Excels at communication skills and thoroughly understands the critique/problem solving process.

Art Alliance of Central Pennsylvania - Art Foundations Teacher

08/2013 - 12/2017

- Clearly communicates and demonstrates art concepts in drawing and painting.
- Prepared course syllabus, designed lesson plans, taught course material, and ran critiques with students in Drawing Fundamentals, Oil Painting, Acrylic Painting, and Digital Painting.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Drawing and Painting at the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee, Peck School of the Arts, 2010